Highlights

The new Superb and Kodiaq

Škoda Auto has provided a first glimpse of the successors to its Superb model and its large SUV, the Kodiaq. Both cars will be among the brand's highlights of the year, with their world premieres set for this autumn.

Half a million battery systems produced

Škoda Auto has manufactured 500,000 battery systems for Volkswagen Group vehicles at its main plant in Mladá Boleslav. These components are mounted in electric vehicles and models with plug-in hybrid drivetrains built by Škoda, Volkswagen, Audi and Seat.

Enyaq Coupé Respectline celebrates diversity

The recently presented one-of-a-kind model Enyaq Coupé Respectline celebrates diversity, equity, fairness and inclusion, which are Škoda Auto's core values.

The eye-catching electric car will be on show at various events throughout the summer.
